No one can whistle a symphony. It takes an orchestra to play it.
(H.E. Luccock)

Our team consists of persons with very different talents, each whistling their own tune which, put together, becomes a brilliant symphony. Arja and Kaija from the Metropolia have a strong academic background and are the leading force behind developing the methodology for the survey, whereas Suvi excels in organizing and analyzing things. Heli and Hele pitch in with their invaluable expertise in study programme development. Tiina knows the deepest secrets of graphic design, Kadri uses her language skills to dot the i's and to help out with written communication. And as every orchestra needs a strong conductor, we have Kairi with exceptional organizational and interpersonal skills to make it all come together.
